Department of Computer Engineering

Microsoft Technology Associate: Security Fundamentals

MGMCET Conducted 2 day's Course on Microsoft Technology Associate: Security Fundamentals for 96 students of Computer, IT and EXTC, in Collaboration with M/s ATS InfoTech Pvt. Ltd. Microsoft – AER.

Microsoft Technology Associate: Security Fundamentals Workshop of 2 days on 21/1/2017 to 22/1/2017 conducted for 96 students and 5 faculty members of Computer Engineering and IT and EXTC Department by Ms. Amrita Karambelkar, ATS Learning Solutions, New Delhi.

 The students will be able to learn the

- Hacking Psychology
- E-Mails: Exploitation and Security
- Operating System Hacking & Security
- Malwares: Trojan, Viruses & Worms
- Attacks Related to Network & Security (LAN/WLAN)
- Web Server Attacks & Security
- Software Reverse Engineering and Attacks on Demand

Students Registered:

 Total 43 students from Computer department, 38 students from IT department and 13 from EXTC department of MGM CET have registered for the above mentioned courses.

After course completion exam was conducted in 2 batches on 22/4/2017 and 19/2/108 and all the students complete successfully Microsoft Technology Associate: Security Fundamentals certification.

At the end of this course students able to learn the hacking techniques, web server attacks and security , Email attacks, OS hacking and security and advanced technology.